

The Vice President of Business Affairs, as an additional requirement, shall have completed a financial accounting course at this college or equivalent at another accredited college with a grade of C or higher by date of their candidacy or appointment. Skills learned must include but are not limited to:

Understanding basic accounting terminology

The ability to understand and compile financial statements.

The use of spreadsheet softwares to compile financial data.