

PCC CAPE NEWSLETTER

Coalition of Asian Pacific Employees

January 2025

Upcoming Events

- TABE and CAPE Solidarity Breakfast honoring Black History Month & Lunar New Year on February 6th at 9am in Creveling
- Lunar New Year Celebration on Thursday, February 27th at 11am in the Quad. To help with this event, contact Olivia Loo at oloo@pasadena.edu

Conference Funding

Institutional Equity, Diversity and Justice-APIDA Initiatives will provide funding for 6 PCC employees to attend the Asian Pacific Americans in Higher Education (APAHE) Conference on April 10-11, 2025. Those selected will receive up to $1500 to pay for fees. Contact Linda Lam for the interest form due by February 10, 2025. For conference information: apahenational.org

Volunteers Needed!

CAPE and Institutional Equity, Diversity and Justice-APIDA Initiatives are beginning to plan the Asian Pacific Islander Desi American (APIDA) culmination celebration to celebrate our students' achievements! We will need support with sourcing vendors, artists and speakers, communication and publicity plans, and more.

Spotify Playlist

The CAPE board created a music playlist, highlighting some of our favorite AAPI artists. Have a listen!

Student Scholarship Awards

Congratulations to the PCC students who were awarded the CAPE scholarships: Leadership: Liping Zhang; Perseverance: Norman Gensemer, and the Sugimoto : Khant Nyi Hlaing, Tiffanie Lim, Daphne Nea, Shikum Zhang, and Yifan Zhong.

Explore Your Community

- Rice and Nori: Freshmade onigiri (Japanese style rice balls) located in South Pasadena.
- Namaste Spiceland: A market and cafeteria-style lunch options, walking distance from PCC!

Follow us on Instagram

@pcc_cape

Stay updated on the latest CAPE announcements and events!

