

PCC CAPE NEWSLETTER

Coalition of Asian Pacific Employees

March 2025

Upcoming Events

- Sweets & Support Member Event: Bring a dessert to share as we come together to find connection and a little happiness! Tuesday, March 18th 12:00pm in Circadian CC 130

- The Garden of Flowing Fragrance: Join June Li, the Founding Curator of the Chinese Garden at the Huntington Library, for a talk about the story behind the creation and popularity of the Chinese Gardens at the Huntington. Thursday, April 3rd 1:30PM Circadian CC 130. Register: www.bit.ly/FeaturedTalk2025

Volunteers Needed!

CAPE and Institutional Equity, Diversity and Justice-APIDA Initiatives are beginning to plan the Asian Pacific Islander Desi American (APIDA) culmination celebration to celebrate our students' achievements! We will need support with sourcing vendors, artists and speakers, communication and publicity plans, and more Contact: Linda Lam

Do you celebrate?

Holi, widely known as the Hindu festival of colors, is a joyful annual celebration at the advent of spring with cultural and religious significance typically observed in March in India, Nepal, other South Asian countries and across the diaspora. Celebrants clad in all white, come out to the street and throw colored powders at each other, leaving behind a kaleidoscope of pigments and joy. Festivities with music, dancing and food ensue.

Explore Your Community

- Chim! Thai Street Food: Chim means to taste in Thai. The restaurant is about bringing the simplicity of good eats on the street of Thailand. Every dish on the menu represents the street vendors as if you are visiting Thailand.
- Yang Chow Pasadena: Old-school Chinese restaurant known for familiar dishes and a the famous Slippery Shrimp!

Follow us on Instagram
@pcc_cape

Stay updated on the latest CAPE announcements and events!

