

Revised per Academic Senate recommendation on 10-11-10

Student Course Feedback Survey

Recommendations

Best practice suggests that student feedback be incorporated into the distance education course cycle. The Distance Education Committee recommends that:

- I. The Distance Education Advisory Board develop a selection of sample student feedback instruments that faculty may use to facilitate adequate student feedback relating to the course.
- II. The data collected from these instruments is not tied to faculty evaluation.