3) Old Business, Discussion, Possible Action:

a) Virtual Classified Day June 26th:

- Jason Robinson and PD office presented on the Vision Resource Center. It is a professional resource center, transitioning to PCC specific. Natalia explained the process that they have been using. Staff can use this to have a running transcript about what they are doing, as well outside opportunities. Everything that you do, will be on this transcript. Lynda.com, has been acquired/changed to LinkedIn learning. PD offerings are being worked, looking at a sort of themes with the PD standing committee. One goal is to have constant trainings that all staff should have yearly, but the focus is on access. One thing to note is that there will be exposure to a resource that can later transition into something larger.
- As part of Virtual Classified Day, next steps would be to connect with David Colley and Senate PD subcommittee. They have ideas flushed out from original planning of Classified Day. Goal is to have this to at the end of the week.
