

Fall 2011 Pathway Students by Gender

The First-Year Pathway began in Fall 2011. It provides new students with a full-time load of essential classes in their Fall and Spring semesters. The program also offers counseling, advisement, tutoring support, and an online “portal” that streamlines student access to important resources and support services. In Fall 2011 318 students participated in the Pathway.

Although not intentional, the gender of Pathway students was evenly split at 50/50.

Fall 2011 Pathway Students by Age

Pathway programs are targeted at recent High School graduates entering college for the first time.

Fall 2011 Pathway Students by Ethnicity

Pathway programs are open to all recent High School graduates entering college for the first time. As in the general student population, Hispanic students are the largest ethnic group within the Pathway programs as well.

Fall 2011 Pathway Students by Residence

As with the PCC credit student population in general, most Pathway students live outside the Pasadena Area Community College District.

Fall 2011 Pathway Students by Citizenship

A majority of the students in the Pathway programs identified as U.S. citizens.

Fall 2011 Pathway Students by Education Level

As reflected in the chart below, Pathway students are recent High School graduates that are recruited into the program to ensure a successful start to their educational goals.

Fall 2011 Pathway Students by Educational Goal

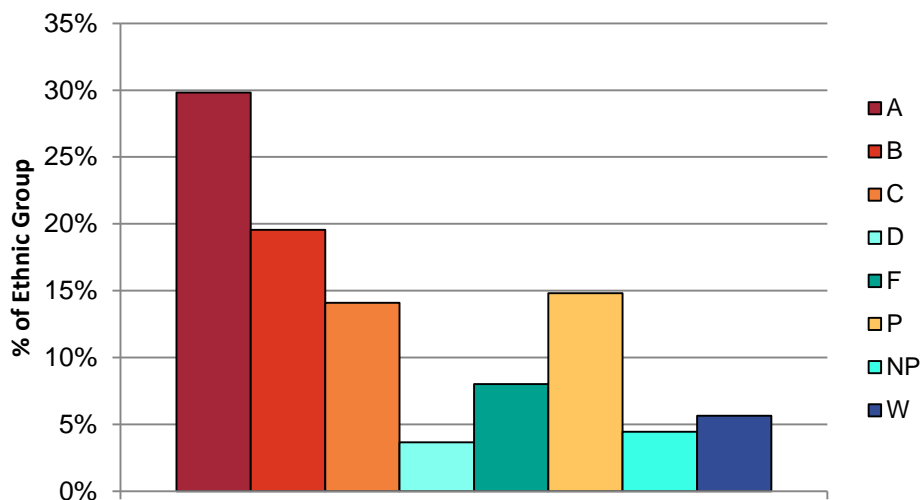

The Pathway programs accept students with varying educational goals, but predominately students indicate their intent to transfer to a 4-year institution after receiving an AA or AS degree.

Fall 2011 Pathway Students

Grades

Pathway students receive grades of A or B 50% of the time in their enrolled courses.

Fall 2011 Pathway Students

Grades by Ethnicity

A	B	C	D	F	P	NP	W
29.8%	19.6%	14.1%	3.6%	8.0%	14.8%	4.4%	5.6%

Fall 2011 Pathways Students Success and Retention

Success and course retention rates for students in Pathway programs is above the college average.

Fall 2011 Pathway Students Success and Retention

Success Retention
Percent
78.0%	94.4%